Asif Warns: Pakistan May Strike Inside Afghanistan After Deadly Terror Attacks

ISLAMABAD: Defence Minister Khawaja Asif on Tuesday warned that Pakistan could carry out strikes inside Afghanistan following recent terrorist attacks in Islamabad and South Waziristan, slamming the Afghan Taliban regime for harbouring militants behind the violence.

Over the past two days, Pakistan has witnessed two major terror incidents — one targeting Cadet College Wana in South Waziristan and another striking Islamabad.

Speaking on media' programme 'Aaj Shahzeb Khanzada Kay Sath', the defence minister said cross-border action inside Afghanistan could not be "ruled out" following the two attacks.

Asif rejected the Afghan Taliban regime's condemnation of the attacks, saying that such expressions of regret could not "be taken as proof of sincerity". "Those sheltered by the Afghan Taliban are repeatedly attacking us," he said.

The defence minister warned India and Afghanistan against any misadventure, saying Pakistan would "pay back in the same coin".

"Pakistan will never initiate any military adventure," he assured. However, he said: "We will not let any act of aggression go unanswered; we will respond forcefully."

It is to be noted here that at least 12 were martyred and over 30 injured in the suicide blast in Islamabad.

Prior to this, Asif warned that Pakistan was fully capable of delivering a befitting response to cross-border terrorism.

"We are in a state of war. Anyone who thinks that the Pakistan Army is fighting this war only in the border areas along Afghanistan or in the remote regions of Balochistan should take the suicide attack in Islamabad as a wake-up call," the defence czar wrote in a post on X.—RT/Agency

Islamabad Shattered: 12 Martyred, Dozens Injured In Ruthless Suicide Attack

ISLAMABAD: A suicide blast rocked the federal capital on Tuesday, leaving at least 12 martyred and 30 injured outside a kachehri court building, said a spokesperson for the Pakistan Institute of Medical Sciences (PIMS).

Of the 30 injured brought to the hospital, about five injured are in critical condition, the PIMS spokesperson said.

Speaking to the media, Interior Minister Mohsin Naqvi said the suicide attack took place at 12:39pm today.

The security czar said the suicide bomber was trying to enter the courthouse, but "when he did not get an opportunity, he attacked a police vehicle".

Noting that Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif has directed to ensure the best medical assistance to those injured, the Naqvi said that the first priority will be to identify the suicide bomber.

"Those behind the court attack will be brought to light," the minister noted, adding: "There are many links in today's attack; evidence will be brought to light soon".

"There are many messages in this attack. If someone from another country is involved, it will not be forgiven," he warned.

Naqvi further revealed that the suicide bomber remained at the site for 10 to 15 minutes, planning to enter the building before carrying out the attack. He added that the attacker detonated the explosives as soon as a police vehicle arrived.

Earlier, the security czar visited the site of the explosion outside Islamabad's district courts and directed that the search operation be completed swiftly. Inspector General of Islamabad Police (IGP) Ali Nasir Rizvi briefed the minister on the incident.

He also directed authorities to submit a comprehensive investigation report.

Earlier, police said that the explosion occurred in a car parked outside the court. The injured reportedly included the petitioners and lawyers.

The building of the kacheri court was vacated after the explosion. Those present inside the building were being evacuated through the back door of the facility and court proceedings were suspended.—RT/Agency

14 Security Personnel Injured As DI Khan Bomb Attack Rips Through Convoy

D.I KHAN: A bomb attack in the Daraban tehsil of Dera Ismail Khan on Tuesday injured at least 14 security personnel.

The attack, said to be a remotely controlled improvised explosive device (IED), targeted a security forces convoy, said security sources.

The explosion heavily damaged a security forces vehicle. The injured were shifted to the Combined Military Hospital (CMH) D.I Khan.

The attack came at a time when security forces are battling terrorists who attacked Cadet College Wana in North Waziristan. The military said a clearance operation is underway to neutralise the three terrorists who managed to infiltrate the educational institution.

Security forces added that three of the personnel are said to be in critical condition.

Following the attack, a large contingent of police and security forces reached the incident site and cordoned off the area.

A search operation was launched to sanitise the area.—RT/Agency

Ruckus And Rhetoric: NA Session Ends After Fiery Debate On 27th Amendment

ISLAMABAD: The National Assembly session was adjourned on Tuesday without the passage of the 27th Constitutional Amendment Bill, which was expected to be sailed through, a day after its approval by the Senate.

Law Minister Azam Nazeer Tarar tabled the key legislation in the lower house of parliament, seeking major judicial and military reforms with a two-thirds majority.

The 59-clause amendment, passed by the Senate on Monday, seeks to overhaul the country's military and judicial structures. It was moved by the law minister and secured 64 votes in the 96-member House, with no votes against it, as opposition lawmakers boycotted the proceedings and tore up their copies in protest.

Apart from treasury members, ANP's senators, PTI-backed Saifullah Abro, and JUI-F's Ahmed Khan also supported the bill. In a surprise move, Abro refrained from joining the protest and later announced his resignation from the Senate.

The lower house session, scheduled for 11:00am, began half an hour late with prayers offered for PML-N Senator Irfan Siddiqui, who passed away on Monday night.

Speaking on the floor of the NA, Tarar said: "[The] Senate has passed the 27th Constitutional Amendment Bill with a two-thirds majority. In the joint parliamentary committee, the opposition should also have attended the session."—RT/Agency

President, PM Vow Ruthless Action Against Foreign-Backed Terror After Islamabad Blast

ISLAMABAD: President Asif Ali Zardari and Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif on Tuesday vowed continued and decisive action against foreign-backed terrorists after a deadly suicide blast in Islamabad claimed at least 12 lives.

Over the past two days, Pakistan has witnessed two major terror incidents — one targeting Cadet College Wana in South Waziristan and another striking Islamabad.

During their meeting at the President House, President Zardari and Prime Minister Shehbaz reaffirmed their commitment to continue operations against foreign-backed terrorists and their facilitators until complete eradication.

The president and prime minister also reviewed the overall security and political situation in the country.

Senate Chairman Syed Yousaf Raza Gilani and National Assembly Speaker Sardar Ayaz Sadiq were also present, along with federal ministers Mohsin Naqvi, Chaudhry Salik Hussain, Azam Nazeer Tarar, Khalid Hussain Magsi, and Abdul Aleem Khan.Their meeting followed a suicide blast near Islamabad's District Judicial Complex that left 12 dead and 36 injured.—RT/Agency

Trump Hints At Breakthrough: Says US Nearing Major Trade Deal With India

US: US President Donald Trump said on Monday the United States was getting close to reaching a deal with India that would expand economic and security ties between the two countries, boost US energy exports and promote investments in key US sectors."We're getting a fair deal, just a fair trade deal," Trump told reporters in the Oval Office at the swearing-in of his envoy to India, Sergio Gor. "We're making a deal with India, much different deal than we had in the past."Trump repeated his optimism that a deal was near, saying, "We're getting close."—RT/Agency

Russia Extends Olive Branch — Offers Nuclear Talks To Ease US Tensions

MOSCOW: Russia on Tuesday offered to discuss with the United States allegations from Washington that it had carried out secret underground nuclear tests, in a bid to ease tensions between the world's top two nuclear superpowers.

Russia has tested its nuclear-powered, nuclear-capable weapons systems in recent weeks, but rejects the accusation by US President Donald Trump that it had secretly detonated a nuclear device.

Trump caused concern and confusion last month when he said he was ordering the United States to test its atomic weapons in retaliation for drills carried out by Russia and China — accusations rejected by both Moscow and Beijing.

None of the three countries has publicly tested a nuclear warhead since the 1990s, and all three have signed — but not ratified — the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty (CTBT) that bans all atomic test blasts, whether for military or civilian purposes.Russia's Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov offered on Tuesday to speak to Washington about its concerns."We are ready to discuss the suspicions raised by our American colleagues regarding the possibility that we might be secretly doing something deep underground," he told state media in a televised interview.—RT/Agency

Fazlur Rehman Draws Line — JUI-F To Oppose 27th Constitutional Amendment

ISLAMABAD: Jamiat Ulema-e-Islam (JUI-F) chief Maulana Fazlur Rehman has directed party members in the National Assembly to vote against the 27th Constitutional Amendment.

Maulana Fazlur Rehman stated that the constitutional amendment is currently being presented in the National Assembly. He added that the issue had also been discussed in detail during the party's parliamentary meeting.

After thorough deliberations on all aspects of the proposed amendment, the JUI-F decided to oppose it, JUI-F chief Maulana Fazlur Rehman said, instructing all party members to cast their votes against the amendment.

Earlier in the day, the 27th Constitutional Amendment was laid in the National Assembly. It was moved by Law Minister Azam Nazeer Tarar.

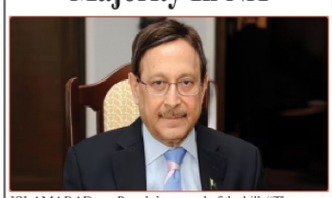

The Amendment has already been passed by the Senate.

Sharing main features, the Law Minister said the 27th constitutional amendment envisages the establishment of the Federal Constitutional Court.

He said the federating units will be given equal representation in the constitutional court as per the spirit of Charter of Democracy. Islamabad High Court will also be given representation in the federal constitutional court.

The federal constitutional court will hear cases relating to constitutional matters and interpretation of the constitution. The permanent seat of the Federal Constitutional Court shall be at Islamabad.—RT/Agency

Farooq Naek Confident 27th Amendment Will Secure Two-Thirds Majority In NA

ISLAMABAD: People's Party's Senator Farooq H. Naek on Tuesday said that the 27th constitutional amendment bill is expected to pass by two-third majority in the National Assembly today.

Farooq Naek, who has been the chairmen of the Parliament's joint committee for law and justice, in media talk show 'Bakhabar Sawera' clarified that Senator Saif Abro voted for the 27th amendment without any pressure. "Saif Abro said in the house that he has voted for the Field Marshall".

He said the Opposition boycotted the Senate session during the clause-wise approval of the bill. "The opposition should have cast their votes against the 27th amendment instead of boycott", Senator Naek said.

He said the President does not belong to the government but represents the state. "The PM opting not to get the exemption has made a right decision" He also said that the committee's members had reservations over the MQM's proposed local government amendment bill.It is to be mentioned here that the 27th constitutional amendment has been passed from the Senate and now the government has tabled the bill in the National Assembly for approval.—RT/Agency

Govt Eyeing 28th Amendment After Sweeping Changes In 27th, Says Sanaullah

ISLAMABAD: Adviser to the Prime Minister on Political Affairs Rana Sanaullah has said that the government plans to introduce the 28th Constitutional Amendment after the passage of the 27th Amendment.

Speaking on Media programme Capital Talk, Sanaullah said the upcoming amendment would focus on matters related to education, population, and local governments (LGs).

The Senate on Monday passed the 27th Constitutional Amendment Bill, which aims to overhaul the military and judicial structures, amid the opposition's walkout and protest.Law Minister Azam Nazeer Tarar presented the 59-clause Bill, which received the required 64 votes (two-thirds majority in the 96-member House). It will now be presented in the National Assembly for voting today.According to the NA's agenda issued late Monday night, the session will begin at 11am. Law Minister Azam Nazeer Tarar is scheduled to table the bill in the lower house for approval.Meanwhile, PML-N Senator Sanaullah, speaking on Geo News' morning programme "Geo Pakistan" on Tuesday, stated that efforts were being made to advance local government matters, adding that the process of constitutional amendments would continue as consensus grew.—RT/Agency

Pakistan Sounds Alarm At UN Over Afghan Arms Fueling Cross-Border Terror

UN: Pakistan cautioned the UN on Monday that the free movement of illegal arms within Afghanistan, many of them modern weapons now used by anti-Pakistan militant outfits, represents a serious regional risk and a key point of friction in its troubled relationship with Kabul.

Ambassador Asim Iftikhar Ahmad, Pakistan's Permanent Representative to the UN, raised the issue during the UN Security Council Open Debate on Small Arms, stressing that Islamabad remains deeply concerned about developments in Afghanistan."Pakistan is seriously concerned about the presence of stockpiles of sophisticated arms and ammunition in Afghanistan, as noted in the findings of the Secretary General's reports," the ambassador told the members in attendance. "These sophisticated weapons pose a direct threat to neighbouring countries."

The Pakistani and Afghan militaries clashed last month, killing dozens, in the worst violence since the Taliban returned to power in Afghanistan in 2021.Both sides signed a ceasefire in Doha in October, but negotiations in Istanbul ended without a long-term deal due to a disagreement over militant groups hostile to Pakistan that operate inside Afghanistan.—RT/Agency

Excess Teacher Postings Trigger Alarming Concerns in Badin's Education Sector

By Raja Zafar Iqbal

BADIN: Concerns have been raised over teacher appointments in several schools across Badin, where records indicate an unusually high number of staff compared to student enrollment. In some schools, such as Government Girls High School Sadiq Kunbhar, 14 teachers are assigned for just 46 students, whereas only 2 are needed according to standard norms. Other schools in Matli and Badin also show similar patterns, with extra teachers appointed despite existing staff exceeding requirements. Education experts and local residents have requested that the Sindh government review staffing in these schools to ensure a balanced teacher-to-student ratio and improve the quality of education for all children.

WWII Veteran's Purple Heart Returned to Family in Illinois After Decades in Safe Deposit Box

US: A Purple Heart medal belonging to World War II veteran James Bennett of Illinois has finally been returned to his family after spending decades locked away in a safe deposit box. The medal, awarded to Bennett for his service as a U.S. Army rifleman, was located and returned as part of Operation Purple Heart, a program launched by Illinois State Treasurer Michael Frerichs to reunite unclaimed military honors with veterans' families.Bennett, a longtime resident of Oak Park, passed away in 1990 at the age of 76, and his wife, Ann, died seven years later. Their niece, Patty Knies, who became the legal guardian of their disabled daughter Susan, was unaware of the existence of the safe deposit box until she was contacted by the Treasurer's Office. The box, registered under Ann Bennett's name, was turned over to the state in 2022.

Knies expressed deep gratitude upon receiving the medal. "I knew nothing about the safety deposit box," she told The Reporter. "When my aunt and uncle passed, many things were passed on, but not this. It's exciting — he was a really great guy."Treasurer Frerichs, who personally presented the Purple Heart to Knies during a ceremony on Monday, praised the emotional significance of such returns. "We have to do a bit of detective work," he told FOX 32 Chicago. "The Chicago Tribune and others have helped us track down these families because it's not always easy."Knies said she plans to proudly display the medal at home and share photos of it with surviving relatives. "I hope this also encourages others to look into retrieving their family members' Purple Hearts," she added.Frerichs noted that this marks the 17th Purple Heart successfully returned since he took office — the highest number in the country. "But our work isn't over," he said. "We still have six more medals in our possession that we'd love to place back into the warm embrace of their families instead of our cold vault."—RT/Agency

Escaped Dog Causes Traffic Chaos in Massachusetts Tunnel Before Being Safely Rescued

Traffic came to a standstill inside the Ted Williams Tunnel in Massachusetts after a loose dog made its way onto the busy roadway, sending drivers and authorities into a frantic rescue effort

Surveillance footage released by the Massachusetts Department of Transportation (MassDOT) showed a black-and-white dog darting between lanes of fast-moving vehicles, narrowly avoiding collisions as startled motorists tried to slow down. The unexpected sight caused traffic to back up along the Massachusetts Turnpike as drivers attempted to avoid the frightened animal.

Authorities from the Massachusetts State Police quickly responded to the emergency. Troopers coordinated efforts to temporarily stop traffic in both directions, ensuring the dog's safety as officers approached it cautiously. After several tense moments, the officers successfully coaxed the dog into the back seat of a police cruiser, ending the ordeal without any injuries to the animal or drivers.

Officials later confirmed that the same dog had been seen earlier near the economy parking lot of Boston Logan International Airport, located not far from the tunnel's entrance. It remains unclear how the dog managed to travel from the airport area to the tunnel, but police believe it may have wandered off while its owner was nearby.

The animal was taken to Boston Animal Care and Control, where staff checked it for injuries and scanned for identification. Thankfully, the dog appeared unharmed and in good condition. Using the contact information on its microchip, officials were able to trace and reunite the pet with its relieved owner later that day.

Massachusetts State Police praised the quick response of motorists who remained calm and helped avoid further danger. "This could have ended very differently," one trooper said. "We're grateful everyone stayed patient so the dog could be rescued safely."

The incident served as a reminder for pet owners to ensure proper leashing and supervision, particularly in busy urban areas near highways and airports.—RT/Agency

Time to Strike Back: Pakistan Must Dismantle Terror Havens Across the Afghan Border

The blood-soaked streets of Islamabad's G-11, where 12 innocent souls were torn apart and 36 others wounded in a savage suicide bombing, mark yet another grim chapter in Pakistan's long war against terrorism. The attack — carried out brazenly outside a district court in the heart of the capital during major international events — was not random. It was a message, orchestrated by the deadly nexus of India and Afghanistan-based terror outfits determined to destabilize Pakistan.

For too long, Pakistan has exercised restraint in the face of repeated betrayals and hollow assurances from Kabul. The Taliban government's continued refusal or inability to rein in groups like the TTP has emboldened these bloodthirsty networks to strike at will. This stubborn negligence mirrors the Taliban's fatal mistake before 9/11 — harboring extremists until the world turned against them. History, it seems, is repeating itself.

It is time for Pakistan to take off the gloves. Diplomatic niceties and empty condemnations have failed. The Afghan regime must be held accountable, and the sanctuaries nurturing cross-border terrorism must be neutralized — decisively and preemptively. Pakistan's patience must not be mistaken for weakness. The sacrifices of our soldiers, police, and civilians demand justice — not mere statements.India's toxic hand in fueling these horrors through proxies has also become undeniable. From Wana to Islamabad, the pattern is clear: coordinated attempts to ignite chaos and demoralize the Pakistani state. But they will fail.

This is not the time for hesitation. The Islamabad bombing is not just an attack on Pakistan — it is an attack on peace, sovereignty, and regional stability. The message to Kabul must be unequivocal: if you cannot dismantle the terror networks on your soil, Pakistan will. For the blood of our martyrs demands nothing less.

Cristiano Ronaldo Drops Bombshell Hint on When He'll Hanga Up His Boots

Portugal captain Cristiano Ronaldo has confirmed that the 2026 FIFA World Cup will mark the end of his illustrious international career, as he prepares to draw the curtain on one of football's greatest journeys.

Speaking via video link at a Saudi forum on Tuesday, the 40-year-old forward—who has scored over 950 goals for club and country—said he plans to retire from football within "one or two years."

"Definitely, yes," Ronaldo said when asked if the 2026 edition would be his final World Cup. "I'm gonna be 41 years old, and I think it will be the moment."

The Al Nassr star, who joined the Saudi club in 2023, also elaborated on his recent remarks about retiring "soon."

"Let's be honest, when I say soon, it's probably one or two years. I'll still be in the game," he added.

The five-time Ballon d'Or winner hopes to feature in a record sixth World Cup next year. His closest attempt to lifting the trophy came in 2006, when Portugal reached the semi-finals before losing to France.

Portugal are yet to confirm their qualification for the 2026 tournament in the USA, Canada, and Mexico, but can secure their spot with a win over Ireland on Thursday.

Ronaldo recently became the all-time top scorer in World Cup qualifying history, netting twice against Hungary to reach 41 goals and surpassing Guatemala's Carlos Ruiz (39).

He also holds the record for most international goals, with 143 strikes for Portugal.

In an emotional interview with Piers Morgan Uncensored last week, Ronaldo spoke candidly about the challenges of retirement.—Agency

Judd Trump Storms Into Champion of Champions Semifinals With Commanding Win

LEICESTER: Judd Trump has secured his place in the semi-finals of the Champion of Champions for the seventh time, defeating Bai Yulu 4-1 and Lei Peifan 6-2 on Monday.

Trump dropped the opening frame to Women's World Champion Bai Yulu but quickly regained control, winning the next four frames with impressive breaks of 50, 84, and 71 to advance to the group final.In his clash with debutant Lei Peifan—who had earlier defeated Masters champion Shaun Murphy 4-1—Trump started strong with a 60-break, but Peifan responded with a stunning 101 to level the match.Despite opportunities to claim more frames, Peifan was unable to capitalise, allowing Trump to pull ahead to a 5-1 advantage.Peifan briefly fought back with a 72 in frame seven, but Trump sealed his victory in frame eight with a 71.World number one Trump, who won this event in 2021, praised his strong start and expressed confidence in maintaining his form throughout the week."It's always a great feeling to get off to a strong start in this event. Every player in the field is capable of beating anyone, so you have to be sharp from the very first frame," Trump said."I felt good out there today, found my rhythm early, and hopefully I can carry that form through the rest of the week. I just tried to play my best, and I feel like I did that today," he added.In Tuesday's highly anticipated matches, Mark Allen will face current World Champion Zhao Xintong, while 2024 World Champion Kyren Wilson will take on in-form Jack Lisowski.—Agency

Faham and Awais Smash Centuries as Faisalabad Dominate Islamabad Early

ABBOTTABAD: Opener Faham-ul-Haq and middle-order batter Muhammad Awais Zafar scored vital centuries to power Faisalabad to a formidable total on the opening day of their seventh-round Quaid-e-Azam Trophy (QEAT) 2025-26 match against Islamabad at the Abbottabad Cricket Stadium here on Tuesday.

Faisalabad captain Ali Shan's decision to bat first proved beneficial as his team finished day one at 322/4 in 81 overs, with centurion Awais unbeaten in the middle.

Shan-led side, however, had a contrasting start to their innings and thus had been reduced to 111/3 as opener Hasan Raza (15), Asim Ali Nasir (27) and Atiq-ur-Rehman (18) fell after making meagre contributions.

Following the slump, Awais joined Faham in the middle, and the duo put Faisalabad in control by putting together 188 runs for the fourth wicket.

Jawad Ali eventually broke the monumental partnership by getting rid of Faham, who scored 109 off 232 deliveries with the help of 18 fours.

Awais, on the other hand, remained firm and knitted an unbeaten 23-run partnership for the fifth wicket with Raees Ahmed, unbeaten on three, to ensure there were no further setbacks.

He remained the top-scorer for Faisalabad with an unbeaten 138 off 139 deliveries, studded with 16 fours and five sixes, and will resume their innings on the second day, alongside Raees.

For Islamabad, Jawad Ali picked up two wickets, while Arsal Sheikh and Hunain Shah could take one apiece on the first day's play.

At the Shoaib Akhtar Cricket Stadium in Rawalpindi, a collective bowling effort helped Abbottabad book Karachi Blues for a modest total on the opening day of their seventh-round QEAT match.

Opting to bat first, Karachi Blues could accumulate 258 runs before being bowled out in 80 overs despite Danish Aziz's gutsy half-century.

Danish waged a lone battle for Karachi Blues with an unbeaten 89 off 152 deliveries, featuring seven fours and two sixes. Top-order batter Shan Masood was the other notable run-getter with his 48-ball 43.—Agency

Shadab Khan Nears Long-Awaited Return as Pakistan Eye Squad Boost

Pakistan's T20I vice-captain, Shadab Khan, is set to make a comeback to the national team ahead of the 2026 T20 World Cup, scheduled to be held in India and Sri Lanka in February-March.

According to the sources, the selection committee, along with white-ball head coach Mike Hesson, is considering Shadab's return to help boost his momentum ahead of the major tournament.

The 27-year-old's fitness has reportedly satisfied both the medical panel and the team physiotherapist, as he recovers quickly and is already bowling full spells.

On Monday, Shadab, along with emerging pacer Ali Raza, participated in a practice match at the LCCA Ground after completing their rehabilitation programs.

A video shared by the Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) showed Ali Raza bowling at full pace, troubling the batters, while Shadab appeared in control with both bat and ball.

The duo's performance was closely monitored by the academy coaches, with Director of the National High-Performance Centre, Aqib Javed, also in attendance.

Shadab had undergone surgery in the United Kingdom a few months ago to address persistent discomfort in his right shoulder, an issue that had troubled him prior to Pakistan's T20I series against Bangladesh in Dhaka in July.

Following medical consultations, surgery was deemed necessary to fully resolve the problem.The leg-spinner resumed training at the National Cricket Academy (NCA) last month, taking part in fielding and bowling sessions under the guidance of the academy's coaching staff.Shadab, who served as Pakistan's vice-captain during the white-ball tour of New Zealand earlier this year, missed several key assignments during his recovery, including the away T20I series against Bangladesh, the white-ball tour of the West Indies, the tri-nation T20I series involving UAE and Afghanistan, the ACC Men's T20 Asia Cup 2025, and the white-ball home series against South Africa.—Agency

Marcus Trescothick Fires Back at Critics Over England's Ashes Build-Up

England assistant coach Marcus Trescothick has defended the team's streamlined preparation ahead of their three-day warm-up match against the Lions at Lilac Hill in Perth on Thursday.

The match serves as England's only on-field practice before the first Ashes Test at Optus Stadium next Friday.

Trescothick described the approach as "the way of the modern game," noting that Ashes tours have historically begun with multiple warm-up fixtures against domestic or invitational teams.

However, in recent series, such matches have been reduced as boards aim to streamline schedules.

"It's the way that series are generally done nowadays—for us and other opposition teams around the world," Trescothick told reporters on Tuesday.

"With the volume of cricket that's played elsewhere, you don't always have the time for two or three first-class games like in the past. You make the most of a prep game or training facilities, and that's the approach we've taken," he added.

Since Brendon McCullum and Ben Stokes took over as head coach and captain, England have largely moved away from traditional warm-up matches, favoring training camps and intra-squad games—a strategy that has still seen them start series strongly.

They have won the first Test in each of their last five overseas tours, including India, Pakistan, and New Zealand last year.

Michael Vaughan, who opened the batting alongside Trescothick during England's 2002-03 Ashes tour, questioned the value of preparing on a club ground, warning it may "bounce really low" ahead of a first Test at Optus Stadium, which is expected to be fast with steep bounce.

Trescothick, however, said England were "very happy" with their preparation.

"We've had facilities here with the nets and out in the middle, plus the prep game. In my day, playing at the WACA was unique, but you adapt to different pitches and facilities. We'll have three days of prep at Optus and go from there. We're very happy at the moment."—Agency

Carlos Alcaraz Outguns Taylor Fritz in ATP Finals Epic to Keep Dream Run Alive

World number one Carlos Alcaraz came under extreme pressure before overcoming American Taylor Fritz 6-7(2) 7-5 6-3 in a thrilling round-robin match at the ATP Finals on Tuesday, leaving the Spaniard on two wins from two.

Last year's finalist Fritz played the tennis of his life, as both men served up the best encounter of the season-ending championships so far, but the American ran out of steam as Alcaraz turned on the style and took the deciding set with ease.

Carlos Alcaraz and Fritz had won their opening Jimmy Connors Group matches, and the Spaniard looked in real trouble when the American took the opening set in a tiebreak. Alcaraz faced break points in the second set but rallied back to draw level.

Fritz began to tire, and Alcaraz broke to lead 4-2 in the final set before wrapping up the win in two hours and 48 minutes by serving out to love.

"It was pretty tight, I was struggling more than him in the first set," Alcaraz said. "I wasn't serving well, and I think he was pretty comfortable from the baseline, from everywhere."

Carlos Alcaraz will be assured of a semi-final place if Alex de Minaur defeats Lorenzo Musetti in the evening match.—Agency

Trevoh Chalobah Drafted In to Replace Injured Marc Guehi in England Squad

LONDON: Chelsea defender Trevoh Chalobah has been called up to the England squad as a replacement for Marc Guehi, who suffered a foot injury during Crystal Palace's UEFA Conference League clash against AZ Alkmaar last week.Chalobah will link up with the Three Lions ahead of their final World Cup qualifying fixtures against Serbia and Albania, reuniting with former Chelsea boss and current England manager Thomas Tuchel.The 25-year-old earned his first senior England call-up under Tuchel in May, making his debut against Senegal.However, he was overlooked for the last two international breaks before earning a recall this month.Chalobah has been a consistent presence for Chelsea this season, stepping in for the injured Levi Colwill and impressing with his versatility across the backline.Despite this, Tuchel — who has attended several Chelsea matches this season — had previously admitted the defender was "unlucky" to miss out on the September squad to face Andorra and Serbia.Tuchel played a key role in Chalobah's development, having handed him his Chelsea debut in 2021.This season, Chalobah has featured in all but four matches for the Blues, who currently sit third in the Premier League, have reached the Carabao Cup quarter-finals, and are competing in the Champions League league phase.—Agency

Kelly Clarkson Slams Music Industry, Says It Feels Like 'The Hunger Games' Arena

Elites in The Hunger Games' Capitol are seen to wear over-the-top makeup and flashy wardrobes. Now, Kelly Clarkson claims the entertainment industry has likewise set these, what she describes as 'crazy,' beauty standards.

This criticism comes during her Studio Sessions residency in Las Vegas, where she recalls her ex-manager in her career's early days advised her to get plastic surgery for her breasts.

"I had some *i manager one time tell me to get a *ojob," she tells the crowd. "I was like, 'Why don't you get a *ijob?' Like, what? I'm fine with my itty-bitty *i! Get out of here."

The Stronger hitmaker continues her criticism, "People say that i*. They say it all the time to people in the industry. They say the craziest i*. I'm like, 'This is not normal. You've normalized crazy'… Everybody's out here looking like they're in The Capitol in 'The Hunger Games.'"

The daytime talk show host also airs her views on plastic surgery to make her stance clear on it. "Do you. Don't make me do you. I like my itty-bitty *i. They've served me well."

It is worth noting that Kelly previously postponed her shows after her former husband, Brandon Blackstock, was terminally ill.

Florence Pugh Opens Up on How Her Perspective on Intimacy Scenes Has Evolved

Florence Pugh has finally spoken about the positive and negative aspects of working with intimacy coordinators.

For those unaware, intimacy coordinators garnered widespread attention after the #MeToo movement started in Hollywood in 2017. Many top-tier celebrities, such as Mikey Madison and Jennifer Lawrence, have also been vocal about if they wanted to collaborate with one or not.

Pugh appeared on a new episode of The Louis Theroux Podcast, where she highlighted both positive and negative experiences working with intimacy coordinators.

She explained, "It's not to get in the way, it's not to confuse, it's not to make things more complicated or make things more awkward. It's simply to make sure that everybody is happy with what they're creating and also that you're creating things that have meaning to them."

Referring to intimacy coordinators, the Oscar-nominated actress added, "I've had good ones and bad ones. I did a lot of my s*x scenes before that was even a job, and I think I'm quite confident and quite happy in my skin, and I've always been able to make sure that I'm heard. That being said … there are plenty of things that I remember where it was just completely inappropriate to have asked me to do that, to have directed me in that way."

Jennifer Lopez Believes Fate Will Reunite Her and Big Ben Affleck Forever

Jennifer Lopez is reportedly trying hard to win the love of her fourth ex-husband Ben Affleck.

According to Radar Online, the Shotgun Wedding star is taking desperate measures to win back Affleck but his inner circle has informed him about the consequences of Bennifer 3.0.

During the promotion of their new film, Kiss of the Spider Woman, in New York City, the former high-profile couple of Hollywood showed warmth for each other.

For those unaware, Affleck served as an executive producer while Lopez played the role of Ingrid Luna in the Kiss of the Spider Woman.

They two, who dated each other from 2002 to 2004, rekindled the romance in 2021 and finally tied the knot in July 2022. Following two years of their marriage, Lopez filed for divorce which was finalized in January 2025.

Referring to the red carpet premiere of their newly released film, an insider told the outlet, "J.Lo had a wonderful time with Ben and says he's as sy and wonderful as ever."

"In her mind, they're destined to be together again, plain and simple. She's believed that all along and now she's even more convinced that it's a case of when, not if, it's going to happen," the source claimed.

LARKANA: Speaking at a press conference in Larkana, Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP) Sindh President Nisar Ahmed Khuhro stated that whether it is the 27th or 28th Amendment, PPP will not compromise on the 18th Amendment, provincial autonomy, or provinces' share in the NFC. He said objections raised by the higher judiciary regarding the 27th Amendment are baseless and emphasized that the establishment of the Constitutional Court is a need of the time. According to Khuhro, the amendment will not affect the general public, and PPP supports the establishment of the Constitutional Court. He also highlighted measures taken in Sindh, including providing subsidies for wheat crops to 400,000 registered farmers and recovering 26 billion rupees from government departments into the provincial treasury. He stressed that PPP will not compromise on provincial autonomy, agriculture, or public welfare and has demanded the federal government set the support price of wheat at Rs 4,000 per maund.

PML Moves Court to Challenge Sky-High e-Challan Penalties in Karachi

KARACHI: The central leadership of Pakistan Muslim League (PML) has filed a petition in the Sindh High Court challenging the hefty e-challan fines imposed on motorists in Karachi.

The petition argues that the city's infrastructure is in complete disarray, with roads in poor condition and traffic management systems ineffective. It contends that imposing exorbitant fines on citizens is akin to a form of punishment and that threats to block national identity cards under the guise of e-challans are unacceptable.

Highlighting a disparity, the petition questioned why fines in Lahore are Rs200 while Karachi motorists are being charged Rs5,000. It criticized Sindh's rulers for competing in imposing fines instead of addressing infrastructure issues, terming the situation as "two laws in one country, which amounts to injustice."—RT/Agency

'Moment Of Reckoning': Justice Minallah Urges CJP To Convene Judicial Conference On 27th Amendment

ISLAMABAD: Supreme Court's Justice Athar Minallah has written a letter to Chief Justice of Pakistan (CJP) Yahya Afridi on the 27th Constitutional Amendment, terming it a "moment of reckoning" for the judiciary and seeking a judicial conference to discuss the matter.

In a seven-page letter — also circulated to all judges of the Supreme Court, dated October 8, 2025 — Justice Minallah also expressed deep concern over what he described as the "continued capture" of the institution.

Justice Minallah opposed the proposed constitutional amendments, saying that preparations are being made to house a new Constitutional Court within the building of the Federal Shariat Court "even before Parliament had considered the plan".

The apex court judge said he was recording it as "a solemn duty to the Constitution" to place on record how "destiny was being shaped behind the marble walls of the last resort of justice."

"Regrettably, the Supreme Court chose to stand beside the forces that had attacked the independence of a constitutional court trusted by the people, so much so that the minutes of two full court meetings, for obvious reasons, remained concealed from public view," Justice Minallah added.He warned that institutions "can be destroyed in no time through fear, surrender, or submission to the powers.""Our jurisprudence has too often bowed before might and power instead of standing on the side of the people," he wrote, recalling that the "unconstitutional" removal and subsequent "judicial execution" of the elected prime minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto remains one of the gravest and most unpardonable betrayals of our oath and of the people's trust."Justice Minallah said the persecution of Benazir Bhutto, disqualification and "humiliation" of Nawaz Sharif, and the "victimisation" of Imran Khan were "not isolated events but a continuation of a pattern of suppression of the people's will when the interests of the unelected elite were threatened."—RT/Agency

Cadet College Wana Attack: All Students, Teachers Safe As Operation Continues

WANA: Pakistan security forces are conducting an 'operation' against three Afghan militants hiding inside the Wana Cadet College, who are reportedly receiving continuous instructions from Afghanistan via telephone, ARY News reported on Tuesday, citing security sources.

According to security sources, the three militants—identified as Afghan nationals—are entrenched inside one of the college's buildings located at a considerable distance from the cadets' residential quarters.

To ensure the safety of the cadets, the clearance operation is being carried out with exceptional skill and caution.

A day earlier, the militants had rammed an explosive-laden vehicle into the main gate of the college, completely destroying the entrance and damaging nearby structures.

Security officials confirmed that Pakistan Army personnel bravely neutralized two militants on the spot during the initial exchange.

Authorities asserted that attacking innocent tribal students has no link to Islam or the prosperity of the people of Pakistan. The security forces reaffirmed their resolve to continue the operation until the elimination of the last terrorist.

Earlier, ISPR reported that security forces conducted multiple intelligence-based operations (IBOs) in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, killing 20 militants linked to the banned outfit "Fitna al-Khawarij."

According to the military's media wing, on 8-9 November, twenty khwarij belonging to Indian Proxy, Fitna al Khawarij were killed in two separate engagements in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Province.—RT/Agency

IMF Demands Special Audit Into Pakistan's Supplementary Spending

ISLAMABAD: The International Monetary Fund (IMF) has demanded a special audit of supplementary grants issued by Pakistan over the past ten years.

An IMF technical mission has arrived in Pakistan to review progress on targets related to the budget process and public finance management reforms.

The mission will assess implementation of goals set for improving the budgetary framework and modernizing public finance management (PFM).

According to sources, the IMF has also proposed limiting the federal government's powers to issue supplementary grants without parliamentary oversight.

Sources further said that a high-powered committee will be established to oversee the digitized Public Finance Management Master Plan.

The International Monetary Fund delegation is expected to stay in Pakistan for over a week to provide technical assistance to relevant ministries.

As part of the reforms, the Finance and Planning Ministries of Pakistan will jointly issue the Budget Call Circular before the upcoming fiscal year's budget preparations.

In addition, the Auditor General of Pakistan will conduct an audit of the supplementary grant mechanism to ensure greater transparency and efficiency.

According to the Finance Ministry sources, the Public Finance Management Act may also undergo certain amendments as part of the ongoing reform process.—RT/Agency

Veteran PML-N Senator Irfan Siddiqui Passes Away — Nation In Mourning

ISLAMABAD: Pakistan Muslim League-Nawaz (PML-N) Senator Irfan Siddiqui passed away in Islamabad on Monday after battling illness for the past two weeks.

Siddiqui had been receiving treatment at a private hospital in the federal capital, where his condition deteriorated before his demise.

He served as the PML-N's parliamentary leader in the Senate and was known as one of the closest aides to party president Nawaz Sharif.

The veteran lawmaker was also a member of committees on Business Advisory, Human Rights, Information and Broadcasting, Interior and Narcotics Control, and National Health Services, Regulations and Coordination.

He was also a member of the Senate Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs. The PML-N stalwart was elected to the Senate on a general seat from Punjab.

The PML-N lawmaker was also a columnist for Daily Jang.—RT/Agency

PTI Chief Gohar Rejects 'Baku Amendment', Labels It A Betrayal Of Democracy

ISLAMABAD: Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) Chairman Barrister Gohar Ali Khan strongly criticized the proposed 27th Constitutional Amendment, referring to it as the "Baku Amendment" and rejecting it outright. Speaking on the floor of the National Assembly, he accused the country's leadership of attempting to alter the Constitution while sitting abroad, saying that such actions undermine the democratic process and the sanctity of Parliament.

"A nuclear state's leader is sitting overseas and approving constitutional changes — this is unacceptable," Barrister Gohar said, expressing deep concern over what he termed as an erosion of parliamentary sovereignty. He said the 27th Amendment was being pursued to serve personal and political interests rather than the public good.

He further remarked that the buildings and institutions established for personal gain would be remembered as symbols of servitude, not democracy. "Constitutional amendments are sensitive matters that require serious national consensus, not backdoor approvals," he added.

Calling the current day a "day of mourning for democracy," the PTI chairman said that the process underway was tantamount to burying democratic values. He lamented that instead of strengthening democratic institutions, those in power were weakening them through unconstitutional maneuvers.

Barrister Gohar reiterated that his party would never accept any amendment made without parliamentary debate and transparency.—RT/Agency

Pakistan Defeat Sri Lanka By Six Runs In ODI Series Opener

Pakistan grabbed a six-run victory over Sri Lanka following Salman Ali Agha's century and Haris Rauf's four-wicket haul in the first ODI match at Rawalpindi Cricket Stadium on Tuesday.

Chasing a daunting 300-run target, Sri Lanka could accumulate 293/9 in their allotted 50 overs despite Wanindu Hasaranga's gutsy half-century.

Hasaranga remained the top-scorer for the touring side with a valiant 59 off 52 deliveries until falling victim to Naseem Shah in the penultimate over when Sri Lanka needed 21 runs in nine balls.

Besides the all-rounder, middle-order batter Sadeera Samarawickrama (39), debutant opener Kamil Mishara (38) and captain Charith Asalanka (32) made significant contributions, but their efforts eventually proved insufficient to lead Sri Lanka to glory.Haris led the bowling charge for Pakistan with figures of 4/49 in his 10 overs, followed by Faheem Ashraf and Naseem Shah with two each, while Mohammad Nawaz chipped in with one.

Put into bat first, the Green Shirts accumulated 299/5 in their allotted 50 overs, courtesy of a vital fifth-wicket partnership between Agha and Talat.

The home side got off to a shaky start to their innings as in-form opener Saim Ayub (six) fell victim to Asitha Fernando in the fifth over with just 18 runs on the board.Following the early stutter, star batter Babar Azam and Fakhar Zaman added valuable runs to the total by putting together 54 runs for the second wicket.

With Babar and Fakhar in the middle, Pakistan were comfortably placed at 68/1 in 17.4 overs, before Wanindu Hasaranga forced Sri Lanka's comeback by taking three wickets in quick succession.

The spinner dismissed Fakhar, Mohammad Rizwan (five) and Babar as Pakistan slipped to 95/4 in 23.2 overs.

Fakhar and Babar made notable contributions to Pakistan's total with 32 and 29, respectively.Following the brief collapse, the all-rounder duo of Agha and Talat scripted an astounding turnaround by putting together 138 runs during their fifth-wicket partnership.—RT/Agency

Modi Vows Retribution, Promises To Hunt Down Culprits Of New Delhi Car Blast

DELHI: Indian police are investigating a deadly car blast in New Delhi under a law used to fight "terrorism", an officer said on Tuesday, as Prime Minister Narendra Modi vowed to bring to justice all those responsible.

The explosion near the historic Red Fort on Monday evening killed at least eight people and injured 20. It was the first such blast in the heavily guarded city of more than 30 million since 2011.

"Today, I have come to Bhutan with a very heavy heart," Modi said in Thimphu, the capital of the neighbouring Himalayan nation, as he arrived on Tuesday for a scheduled visit.

"The horrific incident that happened in Delhi last evening has deeply disturbed everyone," Modi told a public meeting.

"Our agencies will get to the very bottom of this conspiracy. The conspirators behind this will not be spared. All those responsible will be brought to justice."—RT/Agency

ATC Orders Passport Block For PTI Leaders In Sangjani Rally Case

ISLAMABAD: The Anti-Terrorism Court (ATC) has ordered the blocking of passports of Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) leaders Omar Ayub and Zartaj Gul in connection with the Sangjani rally case.

According to media reports, Judge Tahir Abbas Supra of the Islamabad ATC conducted the hearing of the case related to the controversial Sangjani public gathering. During the proceedings, the court directed that the passports of the two PTI leaders be blocked immediately and reports on the action be submitted to the court.

In addition to the passport orders, the ATC also issued arrest warrants for Sheikh Waqas Akram, another accused in the case. The court postponed the next hearing until December 3 to allow law enforcement agencies to execute the warrants and comply with the court's directives regarding the passports.The Sangjani rally case has been a subject of intense political and media attention, with authorities investigating alleged violations of law and security protocols during the public gathering. By ordering the blocking of passports, the court aims to ensure that the accused remain within the country and are available for ongoing investigations and trial proceedings.—RT/Agency

US Senate Passes Bill To End Shutdown, Awaits House Nod

US: The United States Senate on Monday approved a compromise that would end the longest government shutdown in US history, breaking a weeks-long stalemate that has disrupted food benefits for millions, left hundreds of thousands of federal workers unpaid and snarled air traffic.

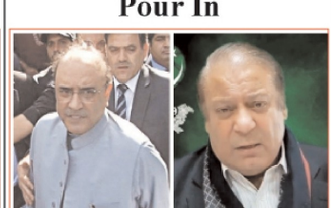

The 60-40 vote passed with the support of nearly all of the chamber's Republicans and eight Democrats, who unsuccessfully sought to tie government funding to health subsidies that are due to expire at the end of the year. While the agreement sets up a December vote on those subsidies, which benefit 24 million Americans, it does not guarantee they will continue.

The deal would restore funding for federal agencies that lawmakers allowed to expire on October 1 and would stall President Donald Trump's campaign to downsize the federal workforce, preventing any layoffs until January 30.

It next heads to the Republican-controlled House of Representatives, where Speaker Mike Johnson has said he would like to pass it as soon as Wednesday and send it on to Trump to sign it into law. Trump has called the deal to reopen the government "very good".

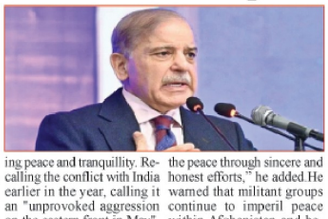

The deal would extend funding through January 30, leaving the federal government for now on a path to keep adding about $1.8 trillion a year to its $38tr in debt.—RT/Agency

PM Warns Kabul: Lasting Peace Hinges On Crushing TTP And Cross-Border Terror Groups

ISLAMABAD: Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif has urged Kabul to rein in militant groups including the Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) operating from Afghan soil, framing it as the prerequisite for durable peace in the region. Speaking at the inaugural ceremony of the Parliamentary Speakers' Conference on Tuesday, he said a stable Afghanistan is essential for connectivity, growth and prosperity."Afghanistan must realise that lasting peace can only be realised by reining in TTP and other terrorist groups operating from Afghan territory," he said.The prime minister noted Pakistan has faced disturbances "both internally and externally" but remained steadfast in pursuing peace and tranquillity. Recalling the conflict with India earlier in the year, calling it an "unprovoked aggression on the eastern front in May", he said Pakistan's "highly professional armed forces" mounted swift land and air operations that thwarted enemy designs and demonstrated an "iron resolve" to defend sovereignty and territorial integrity. "Having won the war, we now need to win the peace through sincere and honest efforts," he added.He warned that militant groups continue to imperil peace within Afghanistan and beyond its borders. Referring to last month's attacks on Pakistani border posts from the Afghan side, he said the response was "firm and decisive," intended to deliver an unforgettable lesson to those who targeted Pakistan.—RT/Agency
