PML-N's Sanaullah Calls PTI for Dialogue After CM Afridi Signals Cooperation

ISLAMABAD: Senior Pakistan Muslim League-Nawaz (PML-N) leader Senator Rana Sanaullah on Sunday reiterated his party's offer to the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) for talks, emphasising that democracy thrives through dialogue.

Speaking to the media in Faisalabad after casting his vote in the by-elections, he assailed jailed PTI founder Imran Khan, who "never engaged in politics".

"Democracy advances through dialogue, but they [PTI] created a deadlock," he said.

His comments came just a day after Khyber Pakhtunkhwa (KP) Chief Minister Sohail Afridi assured the PML-N-led federal government of his support for the "sake of peace" in the country.

In a statement, Afridi said that no meeting of the National Security Committee (NSC) had taken place since his election as the KP chief minister.

"I will attend a meeting of the National Security Committee," the KP CM said, adding that he would participate in any meetings convened by the Centre to "speak up" for the rights of the province.

Meanwhile, Sanaullah — while recalling Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif's offer to the PTI for talks on the Charter of Democracy during and after the PTI's government in the Centre — said that his party was still in favour of sitting with politicians to resolve issues.

He lamented that the PTI founder was "solely focused" on filing cases against the opposition leaders, rather than engaging them in dialogue.

The PML-N leader asserted that his party would emerge victorious in the by-elections, stating that "the public will support the PML-N". On the voter turnout for the by-elections, Sanaullah said that the figure usually remains between 25% and 30% in the by-polls.

The PML-N leader stated that the by-elections were conducted in a peaceful manner, saying "no one was arrested or stopped anywhere in the entire constituency". "Development projects were stopped due to the election. The planning for the development project has already been done," he added.

The Election Commission of Pakistan (ECP) held by-elections in six National Assembly constituencies — NA-18 (Haripur), NA-96 (Faisalabad), NA-104 (Faisalabad), NA-129 (Lahore), NA-143 (Sahiwal) and NA-185 (Dera Ghazi

Mercurial Trump Slams Ukraine Over 'Ingratitude' Amid Geneva Peace Talks

US: Ukrainian, US and European officials met in Geneva on Sunday to discuss a draft plan presented by Washington to end the war in Ukraine, after Kyiv and its allies voiced alarm over what they saw as major concessions to the aggressor Russia.

United States President Donald Trump, who has championed the 28-point plan, said on Sunday that Ukraine had not been grateful for American efforts over the war, even as US weapons continue to flow to Kyiv via Nato and Europe keeps buying Russian oil.

On Friday, Trump said Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy had until Thursday to approve the plan, which calls on Ukraine to cede territory, accept limits on its military and renounce ambitions to join Nato. For many Ukrainians, including soldiers fighting on the front lines, such terms would amount to capitulation after nearly four years of fighting in Europe's deadliest conflict since World War Two. On Saturday, Trump said the current proposal for ending the war is not his final offer. With the US delegation led by Secretary of State Marco Rubio, the main talks between US and Ukrainian officials got under way in Geneva on Sunday afternoon in a stiff atmosphere at the US mission, soon after Trump complained in a Truth Social post that Ukraine's leadership had shown "zero gratitude" to the US for its efforts and Europe continued to buy Russian oil.

in the next few days," Merz said on the sidelines of a G20 meeting in Johannesburg.

Before heading to Geneva, Rubio insisted on X that Washington had authored the plan after remarks from some US senators suggesting otherwise.

Senator Angus King said Rubio had told senators the plan was not the administration's position, but "essentially the wish-list of the Russians." Europeans have submitted a modified version of the US plan for Ukraine that pushes back on proposed limits to Kyiv's armed forces and territorial concessions, according to a document seen by Reuters on Sunday. —RT/Agency

Pakistan Condemns Israeli Attacks on Gaza Civilians

ISLAMABAD: Pakistan has strongly condemned the attacks by Israeli occupying forces on innocent Palestinians in Gaza. Foreign Office spokesperson, Tahir Hussain Andrabi, stated that the Israeli attacks have killed and injured innocent children and women, and Israel is committing a serious violation of international law and the recent peace agreement.

He said these attacks are sabotaging peace efforts and constitute a clear violation of the peace agreement reached in Sharm el-Sheikh. The government of Pakistan urges the international community to end Israeli impunity and violations of the ceasefire.

The Foreign Office emphasised that immediate steps should be taken to uphold international human rights and humanitarian law. The spokesperson reiterated Pakistan's principled position in support of the establishment of a free, sovereign, and contiguous State of Palestine. —RT/Agency

Hamas, Egypt Hold Crucial Talks on Ceasefire Amid Rising Tensions

HAMAS: A senior Hamas delegation met with Egypt's intelligence chief in Cairo on Sunday to discuss the fragile ceasefire agreement and the deteriorating situation in Gaza. The ongoing tensions between Israel and Hamas have seen both sides accuse each other of violating the truce that was brokered by Egypt, Qatar, and the U.S. last month.

In a statement following the meeting, Hamas reaffirmed its commitment to the ceasefire's first phase but accused Israel of continuing violations that could jeopardise the peace deal. The group, led by exiled Gaza chief Khalil Al-Hayya, called for a "clear and defined mechanism" to monitor and prevent further breaches.

under the supervision of international mediators. The talks also focused on resolving the issue of Hamas fighters trapped in Rafah tunnels, with communication reportedly severed with them. Mediators have been working to address the fate of these fighters, holed up in tunnels in Israeli-controlled areas of Gaza. The meeting comes on the heels of rising military tensions. Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu confirmed that Israel's military had killed five senior Hamas members on Saturday after a fighter infiltrated Israeli-controlled Gaza territory and attacked Israeli soldiers. As the ceasefire teeters on the brink of collapse, the situation remains volatile, with both sides watching closely for any sign of escalation or compliance. —RT/Agency

Iran Warns of Threats Targeting Supreme Leader Khamenei

IRAN: Iran's intelligence ministry has warned of attempts by foreign adversaries, including the United States and Israel, to target supreme leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei and destabilise the Islamic republic.

The country's ISNA news agency reported on Sunday that intelligence minister Esmail Khatib cautioned "the enemy seeks to target the supreme leader, sometimes with assassination attempts, sometimes with hostile attacks." While it was not immediately clear if the minister was referring to a specific incident, and Iranian officials often allege foreign plots, statements on threats against Khamenei's life had been rare prior to a 12-day war between Israel and Iran in June.

"Those who act in this direction, knowingly or unknowingly, are the infiltrating agents of the enemy," Khatib added, referring directly to Israel and the United States.

During the conflict earlier this year, Israel targeted senior Iranian military officials, nuclear scientists and sites as well as residential areas, with the US later joining with strikes on key nuclear facilities. Asked about reports during the war that US President Donald Trump vetoed an Israeli plan to kill the supreme leader out of concern it would escalate the Iran-Israel showdown, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu was dismissive but said the move would "end the conflict".

At the time, Trump had also said that Iran's supreme leader was a "very easy target" and that "we are not going to take him out, at least not for now."

He later said in a post on Truth Social that he had saved Iran's supreme leader from "A VERY UGLY AND IGNOMINIOUS DEATH".

The 86-year-old Khamenei has been Iran's supreme leader since 1989 and has the final say on all state affairs.

Earlier this month, Iran's President Masoud Pezeshkian said he was particularly concerned for Khamenei's life during the war and feared that the country's institutions "would start fighting among each other."

In July, Khamenei said Israel's attacks during the war were intended to weaken the Islamic republic, sow "unrest and bring people into the streets to overthrow the system."

A ceasefire between Iran and Israel has been in place since June 24, but both Israel and the United States have threatened new strikes if Tehran revives its nuclear programme. —RT/Agency

Trump Demands Jail for Democrats Over Military Message Controversy

WASHINGTON: US President Donald Trump said that six Democrats involved in a video calling on military officers to refuse illegal commands "should be in jail."

The Republican leader's remarks came after he accused the Democratic lawmakers on Friday of "seditious behaviour, punishable by death." Democrats slammed Trump's comments as "absolutely vile" threats against the six senators and representatives, all of whom have served in the military or intelligence community.

The video posted on social media called on the military to "refuse illegal orders" and featured Arizona's Mark Kelly, Michigan's Elissa Slotkin, along with Jason Crow of Colorado, Chris Deluzio and Chrissy Houlahan of Pennsylvania and Maggie Goodlander of New Hampshire. They did not specify which orders they were referring to, but Trump has ordered the National Guard into multiple US cities, in many cases against the wishes of local officials, in a bid to bring alleged rampant unrest under control.

Abroad, Trump has also ordered strikes on a series of alleged drug-smuggling vessels in the Caribbean Sea and eastern Pacific Ocean that have left more than 80 people dead and which experts say are illegal.

Trump has alluded to the death penalty on previous occasions. In 2023, former US military officer Mark Milley told a journalist he had secretly called his Chinese counterpart after the January 6, 2021 riots at the US Capitol to reassure Beijing that the United States remained "stable" and had no intention to attack China. Trump subsequently wrote on social media that "in times gone by, the punishment would have been DEATH!" —RT/Agency

Pakistan, EU Press Kabul's De Facto Rulers to Combat Terrorism

ISLAMABAD: Pakistan and the European Union (EU) called on Afghanistan's de facto authorities to play a constructive role in achieving the shared objective of rooting out terrorism from Afghan soil. The demand came as Deputy Prime Minister Ishaq Dar and EU High Representative and Vice President Kaja Kallas co-chaired the seventh Strategic Dialogue in Brussels on November 21.

According to a joint statement issued by the Foreign Office (FO), the two sides also discussed Pakistan-Afghanistan relations amid

October 2025 cross-border tensions and reaffirmed their commitment to regional peace, stability, prosperity, and resolving issues through dialogue between neighbours. "The two sides called on Afghanistan's de facto authorities to play a constructive role in achieving the shared objective of rooting out terrorism from Afghan soil," the joint statement read. —RT/Agency

Israel Strikes Gaza Again, 24 Killed as Hospitals Struggle

DEIR AL-BALAH: Gaza Strip Israel's military on Sunday launched airstrikes against Hamas militants in Gaza in the latest test of the ceasefire that began on Oct. 10, as Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's office said five senior Hamas members were killed. Health officials in Gaza reported at least 24 people killed and another 54 wounded, including children.

The strikes, which Israel said were in response to gunfire at its troops, came after international momentum on Gaza, with the U.N. Security Council on Monday approving the U.S. blueprint to secure and govern the territory. It authorizes an international stabilization force to provide security, approves a transitional authority to be overseen by President Donald Trump and envisions a possible future path to an independent Palestinian state. Israel has previously carried out similar waves of strikes after reported attacks on its forces during the ceasefire. At least 33 Palestinians were killed over a 12-hour period Wednesday and Thursday, mostly women and children, health officials said. One of Saturday's strikes targeted a vehicle, killing 11 and wounding over 20 Palestinians in Gaza City's Ramein neighborhood, said Rami Mhanna, managing director of Shifa Hospital, where the casualties were taken. The majority of the wounded were children, director Mohamed Abu Selmiya said.

Associated Press video showed children and others inspecting the blackened vehicle, whose top was blown off. —RT/Agency

A Quiet Triumph at the Ballot Box

In a political climate where tension often simmers just beneath the surface, yesterday's high-stakes by-elections across 13 constituencies in Punjab and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa delivered something truly remarkable: peace, order, and an electoral process free of the violence and controversy many had feared. In a deeply divided political environment, this calm was not accidental—it was earned. And it deserves to be celebrated.

The credit for this collective democratic success rests squarely with all stakeholders who worked tirelessly to ensure stability. The Punjab and KP governments played their part with diligence, but the true anchor of the day was the Election Commission of Pakistan. Under the stewardship of Chief Election Commissioner

Sikandar Sultan Raja, alongside the Provincial Election

Commissioners and the wider ECP team, the by-polls ran with a professionalism that inspires confidence. Their coordinated efforts, monitoring vigilance, and transparent procedures turned what could have been a flashpoint into a model exercise.

CEC Sikandar Sultan Raja's visit to the monitoring centre and his commendation of provincial cooperation underscored a rare moment of administrative harmony. With over 2,792 polling stations—408 declared highly sensitive and 1,032 sensitive—the deployment of more than 20,000 security personnel ensured that every voter who walked in from Lahore to Haripur, Faisalabad to Dera Ghazi Khan, did so without fear.

While voter turnout was predictably lower—by-elections rarely energize the public—the integrity of the process remained intact. And though results are still trickling in from NA-18 Haripur, NA-96 and NA-104 Faisalabad, NA-129 Lahore, NA-185 DG Khan, NA-143 Sahiwal, and the seven Punjab Assembly seats, the real victory has already been secured. Yesterday proved that Pakistan can hold peaceful, transparent elections when institutions work together. Regardless of who wins the seats, democracy itself emerged stronger—and that is the success story worth celebrating.

Virgil van Dijk Admits Liverpool Squad Is Letting Arne Slot Down

Liverpool captain Virgil van Dijk has said that players are letting down head coach Arne Slot and called on the team to start taking more responsibility.

Liverpool was defeated 3-0 by Nottingham Forest on Saturday at Anfield, which was their sixth defeat in seven league matches and left the defending champions 11th on the table. This is the first time in more than a decade that the Reds have fallen to the bottom half of the table.

Usually, Van Dijk reacts calmly to the results of the matches, even if it is not in their favour, but the latest defeat prompted a more apt response.

"We are definitely letting him [Slot] down but we've let ourselves down as well," Van Dijk said.

"You look at yourself first and then you help each other, you help each other get out of this mess because everyone is taking responsibility on the pitch. We have to do that in order to push each other, to make each other better. It's easy to maybe just think about your own situation rather than the collective side when things are not going well.—Agency at the moment it is a mess -- that's just a fact.

"As the champions we can't be in the situation we are in right now. What are we going to do about it? We're going to try to turn it around and that's the mentality everyone should have."

Van Dijk admitted there is frustration in the dressing room after the recent results, but turning on each other is not the solution; the team won the league together and will get out of the current situation together as well.

"It is easy to point fingers but you have to do it together," he added.

"What I want is for everyone to take responsibility on the pitch. We have to do that in order to push each other, to make each other better. It's easy to maybe just think about your own situation rather than the collective side when things are not going well.—Agency

McLaren Duo Lando Norris and Oscar Piastri Break Silence on Las Vegas GP Disqualification

McLaren's Lando Norris and Oscar Piastri have reacted to the disqualification of the Las Vegas Grand Prix, describing it as a disappointing end to the race. However, they have now shifted their focus to Qatar.

The post-race development means Max Verstappen, who succeeded in Vegas, is now 24 points behind championship leader Norris and levelled with Piastri on 366 points with two rounds remaining.

Norris originally extended his lead over Piastri to 30 points by finishing second behind championship rival Verstappen, while Piastri came in fourth place on the streets of Las Vegas.

Piastri was hit by Liam Lawson on the opening lap, but did not suffer major damage. However, he was not good enough to find a way past Andrea Kimi Antonelli to try and catch George Russell, who finished second after McLaren drivers disqualification.

FIA found excessive skid plank wear on both cars of McLaren in post-race analysis, with the minimum thickness allowed for a car after use being 9mm. As a result, the matter was referred to the stewards, who decided to disqualify both cars from the race classification.

Reacting to losing his P2 finish, Norris said that it was a frustrating end to the race due to issues with their cars and added that their focus is now on Qatar, where they want to deliver their best performance.

"A frustrating end to today. We had to do some managing towards the end of the race, and now we know it was due to some issues with our car, which have unfortunately resulted in us being disqualified," Lando Norris said.

"It's frustrating to lose so many points. As a team, we're always pushing to find as much performance as we can, and we clearly didn't get that balance right today."

"Nothing I can do will change that now; instead, full focus switches to Qatar, where we'll aim to go out and deliver the best possible performance in every session."

Piastri was also disappointed, saying they did not get it right in Las Vegas and will now try to get some points in the final two rounds.—Agency

Pakistan's Rising Generation: A Cultural, Career, and Digital Transformation in Motion

By Muhammad Anas Ilyas

Business Student: Grady Institute of Business & Technology F.B. Area - Karachi. Modern Pakistani youth culture reflects a dynamic mix of traditional values, digital influence, and global exposure. Today's young generation is more connected than ever, reshaping how we communicate, learn, and participate in society. Despite social and economic pressures, they continue to preserve cultural identity while actively creating their own space in a rapidly changing world. Technology has become the strongest driving force behind this transformation. Platforms like TikTok, Instagram, Snapchat, and YouTube are no longer limited to entertainment. They serve as powerful outlets for creativity, self-expression, and income generation. Teenagers / Youngsters are emerging as vloggers, influencers, freelancers, and small-business owners, proving that digital entrepreneurship is now a key part of youth lifestyle.

In this shifting landscape, the role of Human Resources (HR) is becoming increasingly important. Modern organizations are reassessing their hiring strategies to attract young talent skilled in digital literacy, content creation, data handling, and online marketing. HR departments are redesigning training programs, promoting flexible work environments, and encouraging innovation to match the expectations of this tech-driven generation. Education and career choices also highlight the ongoing tension between traditional aspirations and modern opportunities. While families still emphasize careers in medicine, engineering, and government service, many young people are drawn toward startups, tech careers, and freelancing. This gap creates both pressure and possibilities for growth.

Yet challenges persist. Unemployment, economic uncertainty, and political instability continue to limit youth development. As a result, many young individuals seek opportunities abroad, hoping for stability and recognition. Pakistan's youth stands at a crucial point full of ideas, resilience, and potential to shape the nation's future.

BORDER CLOSURES CRUSH AFGHAN ECONOMY AS MONTHLY LOSSES SURGE TO 200 MILLION DOLLARS

KABUL: The Afghan Chamber of Commerce has warned that recurring Pakistan-Afghanistan border closures are inflicting massive economic damage, with losses estimated at $200 million per month. FO Slams Indian Defence Minister's 'Revisionist, Delusional' Sindh Remarks

INDIA: The Foreign Office (FO) issued a strong condemnation on Sunday, denouncing Indian Defence Minister Rajnath Singh's "delusional and dangerously revisionist remarks" about Sindh.

The FO's rebuke came after the Indian media quoted Singh as saying: "Today, the land of Sindh may not be a part of India, but civilisationally, Sindh will always be a part of India. And as far as land is concerned, borders can change. Who knows, tomorrow Sindh may return to India again."

According to Indian media outlets, Singh maintained that Sindh Hindus from his generation never fully accepted the accession of the province to Pakistan.

The FO said in its response that such statements revealed an "expansionist Hindutva mindset that seeks to challenge established realities and stands in clear vio-

lational peace and stability. It would be far more constructive for the Government of India to focus on ensuring the security of its own citizens, particularly vulnerable minority communities.

"It should hold accountable those who incite or perpetrate violence against them and address discrimination rooted in faith-based prejudice and historical distortions," the FO statement read.

It added that India would also "do well to address the persistent grievances of the peoples in its northeast, many of whom continue to face systematic marginalisation, identity-based persecution, and cycles of state-enabled violence". "We call on India to take credible steps toward the genuine resolution of the Jammu and Kashmir dispute in accordance with UN Security Council resolutions and the aspirations of the Kashmiri people under occupation."

"Pakistan remains committed to [a] peaceful resolution of all disputes with India on the basis of justice, equity and established international legal norms. At the same time, as in the past, Pakistan is firmly resolved to safeguard its security, national independence and sovereignty," the FO statement said.—RT/Agency

Israel Claims Beirut Strike Killed Hezbollah Military Commander

ISRAEL: Israel claimed to have killed Hezbollah's top military official in an airstrike on a southern suburb of Beirut on Sunday, despite a US-brokered truce a year ago.

The strike, the first on the outskirts of the Lebanese capital in months, targeted Hezbollah's acting chief of staff, Ali Tabbatabai, the military claimed in a statement.

There was no immediate confirmation of his killing from Hezbollah, although senior Hezbollah official Mahmoud Qamati confirmed a central figure from the group had been targeted.

Speaking near the bombed-out building in the Haret Hreik suburb, he said Israel's strike crossed a "red line". Qamati said Hezbollah's leadership would decide on whether and how the group would respond. Five dead in the strike, the US said. It imposed sanctions on Tabbatabai in 2016, identifying him as a key Hezbollah leader and offering a reward of up to $5 million for information on him.

The Israeli military statement claimed Tabbatabai "commanded most of Hezbollah's units and worked hard to restore them to readiness for war with Israel". Lebanon's health ministry said the strike killed five people and wounded 28 more. It hit a multi-storey building, sending debris crashing into cars on the main road below. People rushed out of their apartment buildings out of fear of further bombardment, a Reuters reporter said. Following the strike, Lebanese President Joseph Aoun urged the international community to intervene to halt Israeli attacks.—RT/Agency

Government Denies Plans for 28th Constitutional Amendment

ISLAMABAD: Despite recent statements by some cabinet members, top government figures now insist that no proposal for a 28th Constitutional Amendment is currently under consideration.

Dr Tariq Fazal Chaudhry, Minister for Parliamentary Affairs, categorically denied reports suggesting that the government was working on the 28th amendment package. Speaking to The Media, both on his own behalf and on behalf of Law Minister Azam Niaz Tarar, he said: "There is no 28th Amendment under consideration."

A key official in the Prime Minister's Office also said that nothing related to a new constitutional amendment is being examined at the PMO. "There is no such proposal under review," the source said.

Dr Tariq clarified that no meeting has been held on the matter and termed the current discussion "a media-amplified issue." He explained that while some proposals, originally part of the 27th Amendment package but dropped due to lack of consensus, might be revisited in the future, there is presently no move towards initiating a 28th Amendment.

"Right now, there is no consideration for a 28th Constitutional Amendment," he stressed, adding that he had confirmed this with the law minister. "Anyone asking about the 28th Amendment is being told the same. There is no such thing under consideration."

Speculation intensified after a few cabinet members talked about the 28th Amendment. Prime Minister's Adviser on Political and Public Affairs, Rana Sanaullah, was quoted a few days earlier saying that the government would "soon introduce the 28th Constitu-

Western Powers Seek Revisions to US Peace Plan Amid Ukraine's Review

UKRAINE: Ukrainian and US envoys will meet in Switzerland on Sunday along with European security chiefs to discuss Washington's plan for ending the war with Russia, officials said, after Kyiv pushed back on proposals seen as favourable to Moscow.

US President Donald Trump has given Ukraine until November 27 to approve the plan to end the nearly four-year conflict, but Kyiv is seeking changes to a draft that accepts some of Moscow's hardline demands.

Trump's 28-point plan would require the invaded country to cede territory, cut its army, and pledge never to join NATO. He told reporters on Saturday it was not his final offer and he hoped to stop the fighting "one way or the other".

JI Emir Declares Kashmir and Palestine 'Red Lines' for Pakistan

LAHORE: Jamaat-e-Islami emir Hafiz Naeem Rehman has said that until the schedule for national elections is announced, his party will not field any candidates. He added that Kashmir and Palestine are their red lines.

Addressing the final day of the "Badal Do Nizam" public gathering organised by Jamaat-e-Islami at Minar-e-Pakistan in Lahore on Sunday, Hafiz Naeem Rehman said that political parties in Pakistan are suffering from a crisis of discipline, but in his party, everyone must follow the system.

The JI chief said that actions taken to please US President Donald Trump are completely wrong. He said Pakistan has suffered greatly by choosing servitude to America. Pakistan's foreign policy must be independent, and no country, including the US, has the right to exploit others. Even our disagreements should be expressed with dignity.

He said that millions have sacrificed their lives for Kashmir.

"Kashmir belongs to Pakistan, and Pakistan belongs to Kashmir. Kashmir and Palestine are our red lines. We cannot abandon the Kashmiris. A free Palestinian state is the only solution to the Palestine issue. Pakistan's leaders must support Palestine and take the entire nation along," he added.

Hafiz Naeem said that Jamaat-e-Islami will not announce any candidate until the national election schedule is issued. He said they work to unite the nation, not divide provinces against each other.

He added that those sitting in Parliament do not speak about women's rights. If given the opportunity, every woman will be granted her rightful share in inheritance. Under the current contractor system, women are deprived of their rights, and the rulers have no concern for public issues.

The JI chief said that the current system gives respect only to landlords and capitalists. Local body elections have not been held in Punjab since 2015. Those calling for non-party elections want horse-trading in every union council.—RT/Agency

PTI Leader Salman Akram Raja's Election Tribunal Plea to Be Heard by 5-Member FCC Bench

ISLAMABAD: A larger bench of the newly established Federal Constitutional Court (FCC) is scheduled to take up on Tuesday a petition filed by PTI's Salman Akram Raja, who has sought the reversal of a court order on elections tribunals, which were formed to settle disputes of last year's general elections. According to a supplementary cause list on the FCC's website, Chief Justice Aminuddin Khan has constituted a five-member bench comprising Justices Aamer Farooq, Ali Baqar Najafi, Muhammad Karim Khan Agha, Rozi Khan Barrech and Arshad Hussain Shah to hear the petition that was originally filed in the Supreme Court (SC) on July 22, 2024.

However, the revision petition has now been fixed before the FCC, which was established under the 27th Amendment, on November 24. In his petition, Raja requested the SC to revisit its earlier order suspending the Lahore High Court's (LHC) notification of constituting eight election tribunals in Punjab. He pleaded before the court that it should on July 4, 2024 had exposed the entire process of adjudication of election disputes in Punjab to the whims and arbitrary desires of the Election Commission of Pakistan (ECP).

On July 4, a five-judge SC bench, headed by then-Chief Justice of Pakistan

Pakistan Shaheens Retain Asia Cup Rising Stars Title in Super Over Thriller vs Bangladesh 'A'

DOHA: Pakistan Shaheens defended a modest 125 to beat Bangladesh 'A' in a nerve-shredding Super Over thriller and successfully defend their Asia Cup Rising Stars title at the West End Park International Cricket Stadium in Doha on Sunday night.

In a final that swung wildly in the space of 40 minutes, Pakistan were bowled out for 125 after yet another top-order meltdown, only for their spinners to rip through Bangladesh 'A' and leave them reeling at 53 for 7.

A gritty 43-run eighth-wicket stand between Rakibul Hasan and SM Meherob threatened the unthinkable, before three huge sixes in the 19th over from Abdul Gaffar Saqlain took the game to a Super Over.

Ahmed Daniyal leant-bowled both batters in the first four balls of the Super Over to restrict Bangladesh to just six.

Ripon Mondol, Bangladesh's hero with the ball in the main game, started superbly with two yorkers but Saad Masood's flicked fourth off the third legitimate delivery sealed a famous victory for Pakistan.

Five IHC Judges Challenge Hearing of Judges' Transfer Case by FCC

ISLAMABAD: Five sitting judges of the Islamabad High Court (IHC) have filed a petition challenging the hearing of their intra-court appeal (ICA) scheduled before the newly formed Federal Constitutional Court (FCC) next week. Media reported on Sunday.

Justice Mohsin Akhtar Kiyani, Justice Tariq Mehmood Jahangiri, Justice Babar Sattar, Justice Sardar Ejaz Ishaq Khan and Justice Saman Riffat Imtiaz filed an application before the FCC, challenging its hearing of their ICAs. A six-member larger bench, headed by Chief Justice Aminuddin Khan, will hear the case, comprising Justice Syed Hassan Azhar Rizvi, Justice K K Agha, Justice Aamer Farooq, Justice Ali Baqar Najafi, Justice Rozi Khan Barrech and Justice Arshad Hussain Shah.

The five sitting IHC judges, while challenging the hearing of their ICA, contended that the titled appeal does not fall within Articles 175E or 175F, and consequently could not have been transferred to the FCC. They prayed the FCC that the ICA may be returned to the Supreme Court for determination.

"Without prejudice to aforesaid objections on the constitutionality of the 27th Amendment, the titled appeal could not have been transferred to the Federal Constitutional Court under Articles 175E or 175F of the Constitution," the five judges submitted. They contended that the titled appeal was filed under Section 5 of the Supreme Court (Practice and Procedure) Act, 2023 (Act) before the Supreme Court.—RT/Agency

New York Mayor-Elect Mamdani Still Labels Trump a 'Fascist'

NEW YORK: New York's incoming leftist mayor Zohran Mamdani said on Sunday he still believes US President Donald Trump is a fascist, even after the two had a warm meeting at the White House.

"That's something that I've said in the past, I say it today," the mayor-elect said on NBC news.

The self-described Democratic Socialist on Friday met the Republican leader, setting aside months of mutual recriminations and promising to cooperate on the city's future.

Trump, who had previously suggested the conversation that I had with the president was that we were not shy about the places of disagreement about the politics that has brought us to this moment," he said.

He added: "I found in the view Trump as a fascist, the president stepped in.

"That's OK. You can just say it. That's easier," Trump told Mamdani. "It's easier than explaining it. I don't mind."

In his NBC interview Sunday morning, Mamdani elaborated.

"I appreciated about the conversation that I had with the president was that we were not shy about the places of disagreement about the politics that has brought us to this moment," he said.

He added: "I found in the

Los Angeles Cargo Ship Fire Almost Contained After Shelter-in-Place Lifted

NEW YORK: A fire on a container ship docked at the Port of Los Angeles was nearly contained, though authorities were still assessing whether enough hazardous material burned to cause significant contamination.

The blaze, which broke out Friday night, prompted a shelter-in-place order for surrounding communities over concerns about hazardous materials in the One Henry Hudson's cargo.

The order was lifted in the morning, and the ship was moved out to sea. Fireboats sprayed water on the vessel to tame "a small section" that was still on fire. Los Angeles Fire Department spokesperson Adam

Van Gerpen said. The electrical fire apparently started below deck before spreading to several levels of the ship, leading to an explosion mid-deck, according to the fire department. The cause was under investigation. Roughly 100 cargo containers burned, and many of them carried dangerous materials, Van Gerpen said. Officials said some included lithium-ion batteries and other hazardous waste, though it was not clear if they caught fire. "We don't know specifically which ones burned," Van Gerpen said. A Coast Guard spokesperson did not immediately have more information on the hazardous materials and said the extent of potential contamination was not yet known.—RT/Agency
